DETAILED ACTION

Application Status

1. Claims 1-49 are pending.

Restriction

2. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-22, 25-36 and 39-49, drawn to an antiviral composition comprising a CCL5 polypeptide, wherein the CCL5 polypeptide inhibits infection by a virus of the Family Paramyxoviridae (paramyxovirus) in a mammalian subject; and a method of administering said compositions, classified in class 530, subclass 350.
 - II. Claims 23-24 and 37-38, drawn to a recombinant vector comprising a polynucleotide sequence encoding the CCL5 polypeptide of claim 1, classified in class 536, subclass 23.1.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Group I and Group II are directed to related product by virtue of a CCL5 polypeptide and a nucleic acid containing vector and host cell of CCL5 polypeptide. The related inventions are distinct if: (1) the inventions as claimed are either not capable of use together or can have a materially different design, mode of operation, function, or effect; (2) the inventions do not overlap in scope, i.e., are mutually exclusive; and (3) the inventions as claimed are not obvious variants. See MPEP § 806.05(j). In the instant case, the protein of Group I and the nucleic acid of Group II are related. However, they are distinct inventions because they are wholly different in structure and function. A nucleic acid's structure is comprised of linear, contiguous nucleotides while a protein's structure comprised of linear, contiguous amino acids that fold into a specific three-dimensional structure; the nucleic acid's function is to encode a protein while a protein's function is variable, and in this case, biosynthesis of a penicillin and a cephalosporin. Therefore, a protein of Group I have materially different design, are mutually exclusive and are not obvious variants from Group II. Furthermore, the inventions as claimed do not encompass overlapping subject matter and there is nothing of record to show them to be obvious variants.

Art Unit: 1652

Election of Species

3. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species: Each CCL5 peptide fragments (i.e., SEQ ID NO:2, SEQ ID NO:3, SEQ ID NO:4, SEQ ID NO:5, SEQ ID NO:6, SEQ ID NO:7, SEQ ID NO:8, SEQ ID NO:9, SEQ ID NO:10, SEQ ID NO:11, SEQ ID NO:12, SEQ ID NO:13, SEQ ID NO:14, SEQ ID NO:15, SEQ ID NO:16, SEQ ID NO:17 or SEQ ID NO:18) in Group I, is distinct species.

These species are related to CCL5 peptide fragments. However, the related species are distinct because each species has distinct structure by virtue of distinct amino acid sequences.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution from Claims 12 and 28 on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, Claims 1-11, 13-22, 25-27, 30-36 and 39-49 of the Group I is a generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of an allowable generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Election

4. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
